

Monday, 10 June, 2024

Dear MAGS Parents,

Term 2 at MAGS has been ticking over nicely and, with a few events coming up, it is a good time to promote these and outline a few changes to our usual routines.

Week 7: (this week)

Monday 10 June            The Big Sing Dress Rehearsal – F.W. Gamble Hall, 6pm – gold coin donation

Wednesday 12 June    Winter Sports Photos

Thursday 13 June        Art Board Show & Market Evening – 4.30-6.00pm

This collaboration between the Art and Commerce Departments, showcasing the work of students in both, has become an annual highlight in the MAGS calendar.

Week 8: MAGS Spirit Week

Our fabulous Prefects of 2024 are organising Lunchtime events across the week for their fellow students.

Week 9:

Thursday, 27 June        Nairn Building Opening            2.00pm

MAGS will have an amended timetable on this day and both start and finish the day earlier than usual. Students will be expected at school, will have a five-period day, and class periods will be ONLY 5 or 10 minutes shorter than usual.

NB: We will start at 8.40am instead of the usual 9.10am for a Thursday, finishing at 1.00pm.

Week 10: Final Week of Term 2

Thursday, 4 July 3WC = 3 Way Conferencing

Friday, 5 July 3WC = 3 Way Conferencing

As has been MAGS custom across the past few years, subject classes will not be scheduled across these days because parents, students and mentor teachers will be meeting to review and discuss academic progress. More specific information is to come in a separate communication regarding the 3WC and providing details for booking your 3WC time(s).

Warm regards,

Jo Williams
Associate Principal.
